Corrected every Thursday.

—For farm loans go to S. H. Jones.
—Be sure to attend the meeting at the court room on Saturday.

—Harness made to order out of No. 1, oak leather, at Cunningham's.
—Rains have visited all portions of the county during the past week.

—Call and see the complete line of harness, saddles, whips, lap-rollers, etc. at the harness shop.
—By taking advantage of our new clubbing offer you can get a large amount of good reading for a small amount of cash.

—A heavy rain is reported to have visited the Indian creek portion of the county on Tuesday.
—The rain of yesterday was a daisy, and will make the corn and "inters" grow.

—If the proper effort is made, Sioux county can capture the $250 prize at the state fair, and it is certainly worth the effort.
—The funeral sermon of little Jimmy Wright will be preached by Rev. J. E. Lusk at the church on next Sunday morning.

—We understand that Richard Simler has sold his farm south of town, but did not learn the price or the name of the purchaser.
—The dispatches from Washington a few days ago, stated that E. G. Hough had been appointed postmaster at Harrison.

—The question of a thrasher is beginning to demand the attention of our farmers. The harvesting is about completed and it is necessary that a threshing machine get into this locality.
—SEASONED LUMBER: We have a good supply of seasoned lumber constantly on hand at our mill on West Boggy. 10 and 12 feet $10 00; 14 and 16 feet $12 00 per thousand feet. J. E. ARNOLD.

—J. E. Arner has purchased the interest of his brother in the saw mill and will conduct the business in the future. He expects to add a shingle mill, in the near future, and be able to supply all with shingles cheap.
—The W. C. T. U. of Harrison is working with a view to establish a library in this place and the funds obtained from entertainments given by that organization are to be devoted to that purpose. The object is entirely commendable.

—Extra freight trains pass through quite frequently of late, as the cattle shipping season has opened. The short crops in many localities will cause people there to ship all they can to market, which will likely have a depressing effect on the price.
—The September term of court will have a large trial docket. There are thirty-one cases now on the docket, eighteen of which will be jury cases. That number of cases would keep a jury at work for a week at least. It is the greatest number of jury cases docketed for any term of court held in this county.

—Good rains are reported from five points, Cottonwood and White River precincts the first of the week, which will add a good deal to the corn yield in those localities. There has been plenty of rain for all agricultural purposes during the season if it had been properly distributed.
—Petitions are being circulated asking this county commissioners to submit an order bond proposition to be voted on at the general election. The question as to two bills to be paid out of the levy of this year has been settled and now it is right that those holding claims against this county should get warrants for the amounts.

—Prof. Beany, of the state university and President Taylor, of the state horticultural society, came up Saturday morning and in company with C. E. Hillman made a trip to the badlands north of this place. The result of their trip was a large number of curious specimens. They expressed themselves highly pleased with their trip and will likely return to the badlands and make a longer stay.

—Have you selected any thing to help make up the exhibit at the state fair?
—Dr. Shafer reports the arrival of a new girl at the home of Andy Christen on last Friday morning.

—The temperance lecture on last Sunday morning by Rev. Gardner was well attended and listened to with interest.
—Harvesting and haying is still the order of the day with a majority of the farmers.

—Mrs. S. C. Basset is leaving her residence just south of C. E. Verity's fitted up and will occupy it in a few days.
—Our friends will please bear in mind that wood will be taken on subscription at all seasons of the year at this office.

—H. A. Cunningham has purchased the lot occupied by E. M. Carrier's blacksmith shop and contemplates building thereon in the near future.
—There are a number of bills due the firm of Simmons & Patterson and it will be taken as a favor if the parties owing them will call and settle.

—Having gone out of business, we desire a settlement with everybody owing us, at once. Please remember and act accordingly. Weir & Co.
—Rev. J. M. Bates, the Episcopal clergyman, will hold services at the church to-morrow (Friday) evening. All invited.

—A few days ago the stock of merchandise in possession of C. R. Wells was taken under chattel mortgage and is being disposed of at private sale. This is to be regretted, but the close financial condition makes it very hard for merchants and business men to keep their heads above water, unless they have a good capital to back them. We do not know what Mr. Wells intends doing.
—The gospel temperance entertainment on last Sunday evening brought out a good number of people and passed off very pleasantly. A feature of the exercises was the music which was highly appreciated by all. There is plenty of musical talent in this community to make any public gathering interesting and it is pleasing to note that those who can assist in that line are taking a lively interest in it.

—It is only a short time now until the state fair. If Sioux county is going to take advantage of the opportunity offered and make an exhibit, it is high time the matter was taking shape. There appears to be inclination for one to wait for the other. This should be reversed and each should push the matter along as much as possible. Don't wait for your neighbor, but get everything ready you can and let those in charge of the matter know you have it.

—The recent rains make corn a certainty in Sioux county. The grass is also greatly improved by them. It is stated by parties who have been traveling over a good portion of the state recently that the grass in Sioux county is better than it averages in the counties throughout the state. The failure of the small grain in the north part of the county is the worst feature of the crop question. The corn in that locality will yield less than it would had the rains come at the proper time but still they will get some corn there which is better than a good many localities will do.

—An important business change occurred last Saturday, Weir & Co., disposing of the stock and business known as the Ranch Supply House. The purchaser is Hugh W. MacLachlan, a gentleman of large business experience. This business establishment has been long and favorably known to the people of Sioux county and it is safe to say that it will lose none of its popularity by the change of ownership. The new proprietor has been engaged in active business since boyhood and will use his experience to the best advantage. The retiring firm of Weir & Co., have the good wishes of all for their future prosperity, but they will not continue as a firm. E. A. Weir expects to go west in the near future to complete his education, but Mrs. S. C. Basset will continue to reside in Harrison.

—The Blair Pilot serves notice on the Dorsey strikers of that county that if they send a Dorsey delegation to the congressional convention, against the wishes of the people they will have to account for it. That is about the sentiment all over the district. The best friends and warmest supporters of Mr. Dorsey know full well that the nomination of that gentleman would be in opposition to the wishes of the mass of voters, and would endanger the success of the party. That is why the democrats of the district are all in favor of the nomination of the present incumbent. It is to be hoped that he will see that with the present feeling among the people it would be had for the party to force himself upon the ticket and act accordingly. The political situation in Nebraska is different this year from what it ever has been and a wise course should be pursued.

—The city of York has never had a licensed saloon in all its existence and a short time ago they concluded that the drug stores handled too much liquor and the council refused to grant permits to them. The matter was reconsidered after a short trial and permits granted. Evidently the city could not stand the drought.

—In another column appears a call by Messrs. Thomas, Reidy and Jones for a meeting of the citizens to further the project of a state fair exhibit. It is found the people are taking a good deal of interest in the move and all that is needed is a little organization so that certain persons will have certain things to look after and then the work will be done properly. The people realize that more good can be done the county by making an exhibit at the state, in the way of getting people to come here to look and also in getting cheap money for investment, than in any other way and it is hoped that all will take a lively interest in the work and make it a great success. To win the $250 premium a year would be worth thousands of dollars to Sioux county.

—There is trouble once more on White River. A number of cattle belonging to D. Klein were taken sick and some of them died. It was believed they had been poisoned, and as the Shay family had been in the neighborhood just prior to the occurrence, and it was reported that they would fence their place with paris green, suspicion fell upon them. A warrant was sworn out before Justice McIntosh, and Mary Shay, who was still in the neighborhood, was arrested, and the case continued until the 18th inst. John Shay was not to be found and is supposed to be out of the state at work on the railroad. There has been a great deal of trouble among those living on White River, but this appears to be the worst depredation committed. The circumstances point strongly to the Shay family as the perpetrators of the base crime, unless some one took advantage of their presence and the reported threats made by them to do the deed so that suspicion would fall on them. Be that as it may, it is to be hoped that the guilty parties will be found and punished, and no effort should be spared to apprehend the poison fiends.

—To the People of Harrison and Vicinity.
For three years while connected with the Ranch Supply House our business relations with you have been very pleasant and we want to thank you for the liberal patronage extended to us. Hoping that you will favor the new proprietor, Mr. MacLachlan, with a liberal share of your patronage, we are

—For The State Fair.
The people appear to desire to make an exhibit at the state fair, especially as the crops of Sioux county will compare so favorably with those of other counties of the state. It is thought best to get in shape to make an organized effort, so that the matter will be carried out successfully. For this purpose a meeting will be held at the court room in Harrison on Saturday, Aug. 16th, at 1 p. m., and all who are interested in making a county exhibit and thereby attracting new people to our county, are urged to be present.

A Former Employer's Opinion.

The following letter was received by the editor of THE JOURNAL a few days ago. The writer is one of the oldest residents as well as one of the leading merchants of Seward, and a man who has the confidence of all who know him, and this is what he has to say of H. T. Conley, the republican nominee for county attorney of Sioux county:

SEWARD, NEB., Aug. 9, 1890.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—I understand that our former townsman, Mr. H. T. Conley, has been nominated for county attorney by the Republicans of your county. Now I just want to say if you will give me a little space in your paper, that if he people of your county want an honorable, upright man for that office, one who will attend to the business of the office as it should be done, and in a gentlemanly way, they ought to elect H. T. Conley. I have known H. T. Conley pretty nearly all his life and he worked for us five or six years, part of the time on the farm, but most of the time in the store, and I do say with pleasure, that in all my associations with him that I never knew a single circumstance that did not show him to be honorable, agreeable and prompt in every thing that he ought to do, and the people of Sioux county will never regret having elected him to the office of county attorney or any other position of trust or profit.
